Whitehall. May 16.

THE following Addreſs hath been preſented to his Majeſty, who received it very Graciouſly.

To the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Conſul and Merchants reſiding in the City of Lubon.

Moſt Gracious and Dread Soveraign,

WE your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects do with all thankfulneſs render to Almighty God our Praiſes for his great mercies vouchſafed to our Nation in placing your Majeſty upon the Throne of your Fathers, maugre all the wicked attempts of ſome bad men that would have oppoſed it; A mercy to be remembred to all Poſterity, that after it pleaſed Almighty God (who hath the hearts of all men in his Hands) to take our late Soveraign from us, under whoſe Government for many years we enjoy'd ſuch abundance of his Bleſſings both Spiritual and Temporal, as no Nation under Heaven could equal; A loſs never enough to be lamented; Yet bleſſed be his holy Name that hath wiped the Tears from our Eyes, and made us to ſee Joy and Gladneſs in our Land. by your Majeſties Rightful and happy Succeſſion, under whoſe bleſſed Government, if we by our Obedience ſeek Peace, we cannot doubt but that both Peace, Righteouſneſs and Plenty will flouriſh in all your Majeſties Dominions, and we ſhall ſtill be the happieſt People upon Earth

GREAT SIR, In all humility according to the Duty of Faithful and Loyal Subjects, we thus preſume to joyn in the Univerſal Acclamations of our fellow Subjects, proſtrating our ſelves, our Lives and Fortunes at Your Sacred Feet, with reſolution always to be ready to our Duties in the defence of Your Royal Perſon, Your Rights and Prerogatives againſt all pretences whatſoever,

And we humbly implore at the Throne of Grace, that God will give your Majeſty the Mercies he ſwore to David, that your Poſterity may endure for ever, and Your Throne as the days of Heaven.

There have been likewiſe preſented to his Majeſty very Loyal Addreſſes from the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Church and Dioceſs of St. Aſaph. From the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſs of Landaffe. And from the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes and other Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Stamford, which his Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Vienna, April 29. The Baſſa's of Buda and Agria are drawing all the Troops they can together to ſuccour Newheuſel, for which purpoſe 10000 men are already in a body near Buda; To prevent their deſign Colonel Heuſler has poſted himſelf near Lewents, having with him about 9000 men reckoning the Troops of Hungary commanded by Counr Palfi; And he has ſent an Expreſs hither to deſire a ſpeedy reinforcement; Upon which orders have been ſent to the Troops of Zell, Hanouer and Wolfembuttel, who make together 10000 men, and are now in quarters of refreſhment in Moravia, to ſtay there but eight days, and then to march towards Lewentz to joyn Colonel Heuſler: And 2000 Bavarians, who paſſed the laſt week by this place going for Hungary, have likewiſe orders to joyn him. We have advice that the Troops of Croatia have made an Incurſion into the Turkiſh Territories, and that they have plundred and burnt the little Town of Buzin and ſeveral Bourgs and Villages, and that they are returned with a great number of Priſoners and a very conſiderable Booty. We have not lately had any certain news of Count Teckeley, but the general report is, that he is retired with his Wife and Children to Thourne, where he expects ſuccor from the Turks. The 25th Inſtant the Baron de Leydel, Count Fugger, and the Baron de Bergheim Ambaſſadors Extraordinary from the Elector of Bavaria, had publick Audience of the Emperor to demand the Archdutcheſs Mary in Marriage for his Electoral Highneſs, after which they had Audience of the Archdutcheſs who was accompanied with a great many Ladies of the firſt Quality and the Prince of Dietrichſtein, Great Maſter of the Emperor's Houſhold, and other the principal Miniſters of this Court. The Ambaſſadors having made their Compliment to the Archdutcheſs and prayed her to give her conſent to the demand they came from making to his Imperial Majeſty, She anſwered, That She would follow the Will of the Emperor; Whereupon the Ambaſſadors having given her thanks, preſented her in the Name of his Electoral Highneſs, with a Jewel, a Ring, and Necklace of Pearl to a great value. In the Evening there was a Ball and Comedy at Court, to which his Electoral Highneſs's Ambaſſadors with the other Foreign Miniſters were invited. The Emperor, the Empreſs, and the Archdutcheſs have ſince been Complimented by all the Foreign Miniſters reſiding here, and the fourth of June is appointed for the Celebration of the Marriage. The Duke of Lorrain parted from hence the 26th Inſtant to accompany the Queen his Wife to Inſpruck.

Ratisbonne, May 1. The Biſhop of Paſſaw, whom the Emperor has nominated to be his Principal Commiſſioner at the Dyet, is expected here the next week, his Baggage being already arrived. The 29th paſt 2000 men of the Troops which the Electors of Mentz and of Trier and the City of Cologne ſend to the Emperor's aſſiſtance, arrived here: They came by Water from Ulm commanded by the Count de Daun, and having refreſhed themſelves in this City, they continued their way in the ſame manner towards Hungary The Envoy from the Duke of Zell hath ſent from hence nine Veſſels laden with Ammunition and Proviſions for the ſervice of the Troops with which that Prince does aſſiſt his Imperial Majeſty. The Troops of Suabia, Franconia, and the Upper Rhin having not yet begun their march.

Bruſſels, May 20. The Letters from Liege of the 17th Inſtant give us an account, that the Elector of Cologne's Troops began their march the day before towards Hungary, being to paſs through the Dutchy of Limburg. The Marquis de Grana is gone with the whole Court to Marimont, where they will ſtay a month or ſix weeks. The Marquis de Bedmar, General of the Artillery, parted from hence this day on his journey for Spain. The Letters from Vienna of the 30th paſt tell us, That Colonel Heuſler had taken 400 head of Cattle deſigned for the relief of Newheuſel, the Gariſon whereof was reduced to that neceſſity that they had begun to ſend out of the Town all perſons that were unfit to bear Arms.

Marſeilles, May 14. The Duke de Mortemar is expected here this Evening from Paris, to command the Gallies which as well as the Men of War and Galiots with Mortar Pieces, fitted at Thoulon, are now ready to ſail. This week the Envoy of Argiers returned hither from Paris with an Order for the releaſement of the Algerine Captives that remain in the French Gallies, which was accordingly performed, and a Man of War from Thoulon is appointed to carry them home.
